OutdoorIndustryJobs.com Offers Recruiting Services & Resume Writing Services

Woodland, CA —OutdoorIndustryJobs.com and Frontier Talent LLC have partnered to offer recruiting services for outdoor industry employers to find qualified candidates and fill difficult positions.

Laurel King, founder and owner of OutdoorIndustryJobs.com said, "By working with Frontier Talent, we can help the employer save time and energy as they look for the most qualified applicants. OutdoorIndustryJobs.com has a large database of resumes and Frontier Talent will use it as one its resources to find the right applicants for employers. Besides filling executive positions, Frontier Talent specializes in mid-level and entry level positions in the Outdoor Industry, which are the majority of jobs available on the site."

Dan Cipri, owner of Frontier Talent said "Candidates coming from OutdoorIndustryJobs.com will be just one of the tools we use to find the right candidate. With focused, personalized attention, the latest proprietary search tools and access to a vast, established network of candidates in the outdoor industry, the best talent isn't as far out there as you think. We feel that working with OutdoorIndustryJobs.com is a good match in the fact that we recruit for all types of employment levels."

OutdoorIndustryJobs.com is filling a much-needed service for companies who manufacture and distribute products or provide services that support the outdoor product industry. The site also serves as a gathering place for independent sales reps to find available lines and companies to locate sales reps to represent their products.
